

Boston criminality analysis

By The Locomotive for the Boston Police Department

Key findings

- Too few or misplaced police stations in Charlestown, South Boston, and West Roxbury
- Some incident types are common to all districts, such as vandalism and larceny
- But some other seem to be district-specific, with the examples of disputes

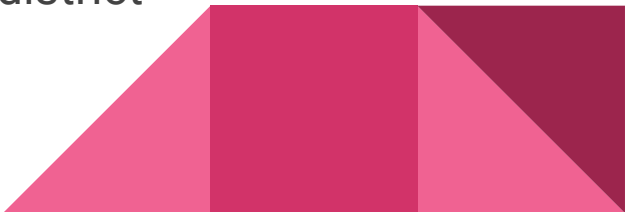

Police station coverage by district

On average, incidents in Charlestown, South Boston, and West Roxbury happens far away from their respective police station.

Districts and incident types

Some findings, to be refined by your Police team using the chart provided in annex:

- Districts of Dorchester, Mattapan, and Roxbury carry much more disputes than others
 - Vandalism and larceny are prevalent in the South End compared to other types in that district
 - Vandalism and larceny, police investigation procedures, and violence and harassment are the most represented types in most district
-

Districts and Incident types

